

KILSBY
WILLIAMS
Chartered Accountants

ALISON HAZLEDINE

Senior Manager, Kilsby & Williams LLP

alison.hazledine@kilsbywilliams.com

01633 653 175

Professional Qualifications:

Honours Degree 2:1 Politics and Economics

Member of the Institute of Taxation

Member of the Association of Tax Technicians

Professional Background & Specialist Skills:

Joined Kilsby & Williams in 2002 looking after a portfolio of owner-managed companies, a wide variety of work is undertaken including corporation tax compliance, accounts tax disclosure, tax planning transactions and dealing with HM Revenue and Customs enquiries.

Alison also has a practice development role with the firm researching and is also co-founder and organiser of the South Wales Ladies Business networking club.

Promoted to Senior Manager July 2018.

Previous roles:

KPMG, Cardiff dealing with corporate tax compliance, accounts tax disclosure, ad hoc tax planning advice and dealing with Revenue enquiries. Also Profit Related Pay schemes implementation, HMRC PRP enquiries, PRP audits and reporting to HMRC.

Ernst and Young, Cardiff where client portfolio included personal and corporate tax clients initially, before specialising in corporation tax. Work undertaken included corporation tax compliance, dealing with HMRC enquiries, accounts, tax disclosure, tax planning and advisory work for owner-managed companies. Also remuneration planning work for OMBS including NIC saving and Profit Related Pay schemes.

BDO Binder Hamlyn undertaking accounts preparation and audit work for small businesses and OMBS. Public sector audit experience also obtained while on secondment to The District Audit Commission.